Have your heart set on an incredible beach trip, but can't decide which direction to go? Some couples seek out luxurious all-inclusive resorts, while others prefer something a bit more intimate. If you tend toward the latter, Bahia Vik Jose Ignacio earns our vote. Surrounded by windswept dunes in Uruguay's coolest coastal town, this art-filled boutique hotel draws gypset daydreamers, models, and honeymooners with its breezy vibe.

West-facing bungalows showcase colorful textiles, rain showers, and oversized windows. With a front-row seat to the awesomeness of the South Atlantic Ocean, we sincerely doubt you'll miss having a television.

If that's not enough, how about the fact that you can practically roll right out of bed and onto the sand? Besides basking on the shores of Playa Mansa, loll by the outdoor infinity pool, play billiards, ride horses, and surf or bike to José Ignacio Lighthouse. Cotton-candy pink sunsets are best enjoyed with a pitcher of clericó (a sort of Uruguayan riff on sangría) at La Susana.
